[D] [F#m] [E7] (last line of verse)

Four strong [A] winds that blow [D] lonely, seven [E7] seas that run [A] high
All those things that don't [D] change come what [E7] may Now our [A] good times are all [Bm] gone, and I'm [E7] bound for moving [A] on
I'll look [D] for you if I'm [F#m] ever back this [E7] way.

Guess I'll [A] go out to Al[D]berta, weather's [E7] good there in the [A] fall Got some friends that I can [D] go to working [E7] for Still I [A] wish you'd change your [Bm] mind, if I [E7] asked you one more [A] time
But we've [D] been through that a [F#m] hundred times or [E7] more

Four strong [A] winds that blow [D] lonely, seven [E7] seas that run [A] high
All those things that don't [D] change come what [E7] may Now our [A] good times are all [Bm] gone, and I'm [E7] bound for moving [A] on I'll look [D] for you if I'm [F#m] ever back this [E7] way.

If I [A] get there before the [D] snowflies, and if [E7] things are going [A] good
You could meet me if I [D] sent you down the [E7] fare
But by [A] then it would be [Bm] winter, nothing [E7] much for you to [A] do
And the [D] wind sure blows [F#m] cold way out [E7] there

Four strong [A] winds that blow [D] lonely, seven [E7] seas that run [A] high
All those things that don't [D] change come what [E7] may
Now our [A] good times are all [Bm] gone, and I'm [E7] bound for moving [A] on I'll look [D] for you if I'm [F#m] ever back this [E7] way.

Yes our [A] good times are all [Bm] gone, and I'm [E7] bound for moving [A] on I'll look [D] for you if I'm [F#m] ever back this [A] way.
